8, 1913 in Heber City, a daughter of Herbert Lorenzo Clegg and Sarah Clista Smith, daughter of Philip Smith and Eliza Ann Frampton. James died March 8, 1950.

James helped on the family farm and worked with sheep and cattle. Being dependable he was in charge of herds of sheep for many years. Growing tired of being away from home so much he decided to find other employment. He obtained work at the Geneva Steel plant in Orem and worked there for more than thirteen years, until his retirement. Men usually retire at 65 years, but James worked six years over this age on a permit. He was retired at 71 and lived three years more.

Alice has worked in all of the church organizations. About thirty years as organist in the Primary, Mutual and ward. Was President of the YWMIA for four years. Has been Wallsburg post-mistress for 19 years. She has helped in many ward operettas and played for dances.

Their children are: Ray, Fern E., Phyllis C., Mildred, Myrth, Ivadell, LaVerl J.

EDWARD AND LIZZIE LINDSAY JONES

Edward Jones was born in Heber, April 28, 1879, to Richard and Agnes Campbell Jones. He was married to Lizzie Lindsay 5 Oct. 1899 in Prides Hall in Center Creek by George Barzee. To them were born four children as follows: Jennie, born 26 Jan. 1902, Alfonso, 1 April 1905, (died 27 April 1905), Grant 13 Sept. 1907, Allen 25 Oct. 1909, who married Lucy Wright 3 Nov. 1933. Edward died 20 Sept. 1910.

Edward moved to Center Creek with his parents when a small boy. He helped his father with the farm work and was one of the early sheepmen in the county. At that time it was a real task in the winter to get grain and other supplies to their herds on the eastern desert in Duchesne County. The roads through Strawberry Valley would drift full of snow and it took an expert to keep on the road. The snow became packed where the loaded sleighs traveled, and if the horses slipped off it was a real task to get them back on the road. Ed was an expert at this and his horses were well trained so he was always the lead team. He became a very prosperous sheep raiser. The lambs were trailed from the summer range to Heber, from here they were loaded on cars and sent by rail to markets in Kansas City. On one of these trips Ed and his hired man, Young, got typhoid fever, and they both died after returning home.

Lizzie Jones raised her family and did a great deal of work for people in need. She is a member of the LDS Church. p 1068
